from the first, or because the original total amaurosis retrogresses, or even because the atrophy progresses and then stops short of being complete.

From these facts we must always bear in mind that in slight injuries of the frontal bone the vision may be gravely affected.

Ernest Thomson.