

Figure: Scatter plot illustrating visual acuity against keratometry measurements. (A,B) Visual acuity decreases with increasing corneal curvature. (C,D) Visual acuity decreases with increasing corneal astigmatism, although only with a weak relation.